

AIRQUEST® RESIDENTIAL HEATING & COOLING PRODUCTS

AIRQUEST®

PRODUCT AT-A-GLANCE FOLDOUT

No Hassle Replacement™ limited warranty:

Your huge competitive advantage

When you're talking to a homeowner about a new heating and cooling system, you have a huge advantage over most competitors—the Airquest® No Hassle Replacement™ limited warranty. Make the most of every sales opportunity by making sure you understand this important warranty and how to use it to get the sale. Here are the basics:

How does it work?

The No Hassle Replacement limited warranty offers a one-time new equivalent replacement unit should the compressor, covered outdoor coil or heat exchanger fail due to defect during the No Hassle Replacement period. The No Hassle Replacement limited warranty applies to deluxe products and varies in length of limited coverage –up to 10 years to the original purchaser.

What does that mean to your customers?

Simply this: If a covered major component fails during the No Hassle Replacement limited warranty period, the customer has the option to:

1. Replace the unit.
2. Repair the unit.

It's a powerful selling tool that offers homeowners peace of mind. Use this superior warranty to build value in the products you sell. Mention it on every sales call.

How do you use it to close the sale?

Follow these three steps:

1. Advertise it. Include the No Hassle Replacement limited warranty in all of your ads, on your website, and in every marketing tool you use. Check the "Business Building Tools" section of the Dealer Resource Center at www.GoAirquest.com to find logos and graphics to help you promote it.
2. Mention it. Tell EVERY customer about the No Hassle Replacement limited warranty and explain how it works.
3. Offer it. Always offer at least one product covered by the No Hassle Replacement limited warranty. There are plenty of covered products available. All Airquest deluxe products include a No Hassle Replacement limited warranty.

Read the warranty certificate for details. Make sure you understand this important warranty before your next sales call. This warranty offers extra coverage in addition to the standard product limited warranty. Restrictions apply. See the most current and complete warranty certificate for further details.

It's Easier to Find Split-System Matches... with Our Online Database!

The process of matching split systems can be time-consuming and lead to information overload. Now you can search for Airquest® equipment using our online database for split system air conditioning and heat pump combination ratings.

How to find it: Look on www.goairquest.com under Product Information.

It's Easy to Use!

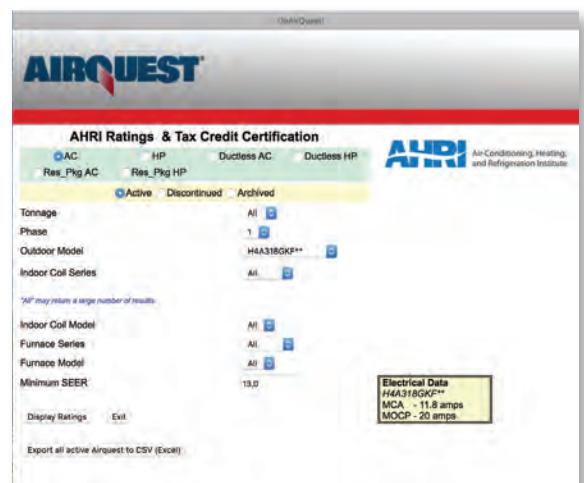

Specific to Airquest systems, the database incorporates these user-friendly features:

- Drop-down lists showing all model numbers, so there's no need to type in part of a model number
- Option to specify indoor (coil) model, or search all indoor models
- Option to specify furnace model, or search all furnaces
- Option to search with a minimum SEER
- Export an unlimited number of results to an Excel file for even easier sorting and comparing
- Includes combinations that are "archived" in the AHRI database
- AHRI reference numbers are included for every combination

The database pulls data directly from AHRI but simplifies the user interface and makes it easier to find what you're looking for. When a given model is no longer in production, the combinations are still retained in the database. If you have New Old Stock—new (unused) equipment that's been in inventory so long that AHRI has dropped the combination—this new database makes it easy to find.

Best of all, using the database allows you to make the results as broad or as narrow as you wish and makes it easy to drill-down on the specific equipment you're looking for without wading through every brand in the industry.
