

You're invited

Carrier Commercial Refrigeration Customer Days

The future of your store starts here

From industry trends and new technologies to life-cycle solutions, efficiency and sustainability, Carrier can unleash your store potential!

We are inviting you to a dedicated customer day engagement, tailored to your needs, at our Intelligence Center located in Mainz, Germany.

Your own dedicated program!

We will shape a special agenda to address your specific needs. Topic selections range from new product development, energy efficiency, sustainable solutions such as CO₂ refrigerants, services, digital and life-cycle solutions.

See it, touch it, feel it!

A show-room area will be arranged to display our latest equipment and innovations for food retail refrigeration in all formats.

Our teams are looking forward to welcome you.
